External Enrolment Policy & Process Henley Sports Academy

*Process for students applying to study within the Henley Sports Academy only, with no other Henley High School subjects, whilst still enrolled in their host school.
Available to all sports, Years 10, 11 & 12 only.*

1. Prospective students may contact the Assistant Principal – Director for Sport for clarification on the Application Process and to receive application forms. Assistant Principal – Director for Sport will refer to student numbers to ascertain availability.
2. Students complete and return application forms available either via online application or in hard copy form (both available on website) to Henley High School.
3. Students will be asked to attend a practical trial during Henley Sports Academy lesson time.
4. If students meet the requirements for entry (see Enrolment Criteria), students attend a meeting with Henley High School counsellor to confirm 0.17 enrolment with Henley High School and select their Henley Sports Academy line.
5. Students will need to order a Henley Sports Academy uniform from the Uniform Shop for the following year.
6. Cost for External Henley Sports Academy students is $450.
7. Expectations regarding attendance is that students attend all lessons unless negotiated with Assistant Principal – Director for Sport in conjunction with Henley Sports Academy managers. This is to be done on an individual basis. Alternatives may include use of Virtual Classrooms, online course material etc.
8. Students enrolled in Henley Sports Academy may be required to represent Henley High School in knockout or statewide team events if their own school/college has not entered a team.
9. Entry into the Henley Sports Academy as an external student available in years 10, 11 and 12 only.
10. External enrolment process will be reviewed annually.
